Electropoise.

TRADE MARK

SIMPLE IN CONSTRUCTION, PERMANENT IN DURATION, EASILY APPLIED, ITS SKILL-FUL USE QUICKLY LEARNED.

The Electropoise is an Instrument for the CURE OF DISEASE
WITHOUT MEDICINE.

BASED ON NEW THEORY OF THE CAUSE AND CURE OF DISEASE, it deals with the electrical and magnetic conditions of the body and the cases surrounding it in the atmosphere, controlling these conditions as will. It is not electricity.
DISEASE is simply impaired vitality. The Electropoise constantly adds to the vitality and only assists nature, in nature's way, to throw off the trouble.

A 40-page book, describing treatment and containing testimonials from all sections, and for the cure of all diseases, mailed FREE on application.

Origin of Beck Beer.

From Munich, the city of beer and beer-drinkers, a German historian has announced a discovery of interest to the beer drinkers and philologists of the world. In a chronicle of the Bavarian capital, written three or four centuries ago, he has found the early record of Beck beer brewing in Munich.

At the beginning of the 16th century a young prince of the Munich court was sent off to Russia to marry the heir to the Russian throne. She was so averse, however, to the dark and morose Crown Prince, that, after many days of hysterical indecision, she cut loose from him abruptly, and left with her suite for home. She became ill on the way, and was obliged to stop over in Ebnack, famous for producing the best beer in Europe. As German doctors do now, so her doctors did then, and recommended the best beer as the best tonic. She followed their recommendation, and recovered. When she appeared eventually to Munich again her suite had been increased by an addition of an Ebnack brewer.

The Princess at once had the court brew-house built near the royal residence, and there it still stands, giving to the world the matchless Hofbrau as it first gave it under the management of the Princess's imported Ebnack brewer. The house was near the outer walls of the city then, and not far from a gate known as the Gurgie, a term the cooper, the finest of Ebnack beer, which derived its prefix from the abbreviation of the name of its distinctive superiority in color, odor and flavor.

Old beer was brewed but once annually, and was drunk in May. But at the beginning of the century beer was manufactured so much more than any other Ebnack beer in Munich that in ordering it a person usually called simply for "Ebnack," which soon became corrupted into "Ebnack," and this became "Ein Beck" just before the revolution of 1818-9. So a Beck, or goat, was made the symbol of the famous brew, which originally had as little real or figurative connection with a goat as Ebnack had.

Turning out Rockwell.

The goodly good Mugwump newspapers, aided by the republican organs, are still abusing Senator Hill for making an effort to keep his friend, Mr. Rockwell, in his seat in the House. They are making a great ado over the fact that Mr. O'Ferrall and his committee have decided to turn out Rockwell, democrat, and seat his republican opponent, and claim that the action of the committee is a rebuke to the interference of Senator Hill. This is all right. The facts are that it is not in the least a rebuke to Senator Hill. The latter has only done what any good democrat would do under the same circumstances. Mr. Rockwell is from Senator's Hill's district, and received his certificate of election from the latter. When the contest was pending before the committee Senator Hill called upon Mr. O'Ferrall and other democratic members of the committee and stated in firm and courteous language the belief that Mr. Rockwell was fairly elected, and should be allowed to keep his seat. For doing this he was set upon and abused by radical mugwump journals.

Their attacks will do him more good than harm, as have all their previous attacks. In the mean time it is well enough to remind the pure, high, sweet-scented plinks of the high morality party that when they have a majority in the House they kick a democrat out without as much as him to say a word in his favor or allowing him to say a word in his own defense. In the last Congress democrats were buried out of the House by pairs, and in several cases they had been elected by from eight to thirteen thousand majority. But in a democratic House a democratic commit the split line hairs to decide whether a democrat or a republican shall hold a seat in Congress.—Courier Journal.

A COIN RETURNS AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS.

Seventeen years ago a boy named C. Meredith, living in Prince William county, now a resident of Washington, stamped his name on a silver quarter coined in 1875, the year of his birth. He then spent it, and wondered if he would ever see that quarter again. A few days ago a young lad in the census office in looking through her purse found a quarter stamped C. Meredith, and turning to a yellow clerk, said, "Mr. Meredith here is a quarter with your name on it." The person addressed was a brother of the boy who had stamped the coin. He remembered the incident and the coin found its way back to the man who owned it seventeen years ago.—Fredericksburg Star.
